

NEW MEDIA INTERNSHIP

Summary

The Washington Mystics New Media Internship program will provide students with a unique opportunity to showcase their passion and talents, as they relate to broadcasting, journalism and new media. All projects will aim to enhance the official Mystics website, and provide students with hands-on experience in creating, developing and executing broadcast and journalism projects. This will be a competitive internship program, where students will have the opportunity to expand their portfolios, as well as implement their own creative ideas within the context of a professional sports team.

🎥 Broadcast

Video content will be used to support written stories. In addition, stand alone video features will be developed to continue to provide fans with an in-depth look at the Mystics. Projects will include, but are not limited to player, coach and GM interviews; sponsorship features; training camp recaps; ads; and game previews.

🎥 Journalism

Writers will be expected to develop content to include, but not limited to sales; sponsorship & community events; scouting reports; and feature stories.
